Please join us for our next Gallery Walk, Friday, March 7, 5–8 pm

- 1 Arts Iowa City's ArtiFactory
Vera Rangelova: Encaustic Art
Embracing the beauty and technical complexity of the ancient art of encaustic painting with beeswax, resin, and pigments.
- 2 Blick Art Materials
Bao Pham: Garden of Sweet Delights
Come see what sprouted in Bao's studio this winter. These little seedlings reached for light and grew into delightful and peculiar fruits ready for picking.
- 3 Glassando
Laura Yost: Hecho En Iowa
She freehand weaves Japanese and Czech glass beads. Using primarily peyote and herringbone stitches, she creates flat & 3-D forms with a color palette centering on earth tones.
- 4 Iowa Artisans Gallery
David Luck: Metal Slideshows
Each mural sized wall relief is a rich mosaic of embossed copper tiles linked together into a layered, textural tapestry.
- 5 Iowa City Public Library
"Humanity and Cosmos," "The Crystal of Your Soul," and "The Harmony and Balance"
Art exhibits are brought to you by Harte School of Art Students. Their art will be featured in several glass cases around the room and an art wall in the play area!
5–7 PM
- 6 Iowa City Senior Center
Hani Elkadi: Retrospective
"I deeply believe in the unlimited ways of looking at nature and the surroundings, people, and their emotions, imaginations, and dreams."
- 7 Iowa Conservatory
Iowa Conservatory Students: Spring in the Art Studio
See what Iowa Conservatory students are up to. Paintings, drawings, and sculptures will be displayed. Drop-in and draw alongside students.
- 8 Main Library Gallery, University of Iowa Libraries
Curated by Rich Dana: A Roll of the Dice: Symbolism in the Sackner Archive
This exhibition features stunning art, books, and ephemera from the Ruth and Marvin Sackner Archive of Concrete and Visual Poetry that has explored the immense influence of the poem on artists, writers, and culture since its publication.
- 9 Prairie Lights Books and Cafe
Drew Mounce Gallery
Artist Statement: "Surrealism allows the artist to more easily use color and composition to inspire the emotions of the viewer, much as an evocative piece of music."
- 10 Public Space One
Curated by Jeremy Chen with works by Jen P. Harris, R Kauff, Kathranne Knight, and Ajdin Kulic: Drawn Between: Possibility and Inevitability
Drawn Between is an exhibition and publication project curious about the act of drawing. The show title comes from the artist William Kentridge's assertion that drawing is always "hovering" between "possibility and inevitability."
- 11 r.s.v.p.
Harper Folsom, MFA candidate and Iowa Arts Fellow, UI Center for the Book: I Thought of You Today
These sentiments are embedded in handmade kozo paper, side by side with stamps, envelopes, and other correspondence ephemera.
- 12 Ten Thousand Villages
Taissir Abdelgadir
This gallery will exhibit Sudanese batik art.
- 13 The James Theater
Deb Talan: Prints in Paintings and Prismatic Landscapes
Prismatic colors and animal blockprints on tissue paper featured in paintings on wood and watercolor paper. 5–7 PM
- 14 U.S. Bank
Andreas Soemadi: Artem Mathematica
As a graphics artist, he fuses mathematics and coding through a software called Mathematica to produce his artwork.
- 15 UI Stanley Museum of Art
it's a fine thing
Curated by Katherine Simóne Reynolds and supported by a five-person curatorial cohort of advisors, "it's a fine thing" explores rich and often overlooked landscape of the Black Midwest, including the Rust Belt.
- 16 University of Iowa Museum of Natural History
Community Gallery Wall
The Community Gallery Wall exhibit features pieces made during Art & Write Nights. Come participate in Art & Write Night during the Spring Gallery Walk!
- 17 Willow & Stock
City High School Art Department
Twenty-two advanced art students from the City High school Art Department will display mixed media pieces.
